

Contamination of Kristianstad biosphere reservoir by metal bound sediments (poster 128)

Median concentrations of ditch sediments compared to references values

Percentage of Al, Fe and OM from ditch sediments compared to references

- Most trace elements have low concentrations
- Others elements in contrast are elevated, such as Be and U
- REE occur in high concentrations

Designing and Implementing an environmental friendly remediation option for these polluted sediments is the next crucial step

